TBIC President's Corner by Doug Smaus

Hello to all of you in the Tampa Bay Iowa Club.

September marks a very important time for the Club - our annual membership drive. I hope the following information will let you know how meaningful your membership is to TBIC.

The Club is supported and kept alive by your member dues. Dues also allow TBIC to sponsor special events, award a local area student scholarship to the UI Alumni Association and maintain communication with hundreds of area alumni.

Doug Smaus
TBIC President

Members also get special pricing and advance notice for events such as bowl games. The good news is that the savings far exceed any dues paid each year.

Membership in the TBIC is open to all alumni, former students, local active military (free while on active duty) and friends of the U of Iowa.

A membership form is located on page 4.

Help keep the TBIC alive and remember the dues are also tax deductible.

In closing, I want to say THANKS TO ALL OF YOU for your generous donations of $6,100 to the UI Foundation for Flood Relief this summer!

Enjoy this issue and I look forward to meeting you in the near future.

Hawkeye Insider – Diane Lane

Diane Lane was born in Panama City, FL but was raised in Cedar Rapids, IA. While living in Iowa she became a die-hard Hawkeye fan, going to her first game at the age of 5!

Diane Lane
TBIC Secretary

Diane and her mother joined the Tampa Bay Iowa Club in 2005. In 2006 Diane became a TBIC Board member and also assumed the position of Secretary.

Diane has made her home in Tampa since 1989 and attended the University of South Florida. She has worked for White Glove International (WGI) for 8 years and is currently VP for Sales. WGI specializes in tickets and hospitality for major sporting events.

Diane was married in March of 2008. Diane and her husband Les reside in the Tampa area with their dog Punkin.

"Hawkeye Diane"
Game Ready

Keeping with tradition, Diane will return to Iowa on September 27th to watch the Hawkeyes play Northwestern. As she has done since the age of five, Diane will enjoy the game with many family members.

Hawkeye Happy Hour Update

Hawkeye Happy Hour at Maggiano's. Sono di...TBIC

On August 21st sixteen members of the TBIC met for a Hawkeye Happy Hour (HHH) at Maggiano's Little Italy in West Shore Plaza.

After the HHH, fourteen members enjoyed dinner at Maggiano's. By all accounts the night was a memorable, fun night and the wine and meals were delizioso!

Due to the good fun and success of the dinner following the Hawkeye Happy Hour, more HHHdinners will be scheduled in the future.

The next Hawkeye Happy Hour will take place on Thursday September 18th at The Quorum Hotel.

Starting at 5:30p and all night, there will be $2 beer, ½ price wine, ½ price appetizers, free chair massages and free Wii set up.

Don't be shy and join in the fun.

Football Game Watches at Boston's

1,400 miles from Tampa, FL, the Hawkeyes kicked off their football season at home against the University of Maine Black Bears.

In Tampa, 75 enthusiastic TBIC members kicked off the 2008 Hawkeye Game Watch season at Boston's on Anderson Road.

GO 2008 HAWKS!

It did not take long for the Hawkeys to score and the members to cheer them on for more. In the end the Hawkeyes won their 2008 inaugural game by a score of 46 to 3!

Doug Smaus, held the traditional drawing for door prizes at halftime. As usual Boston's provided $30 gift certificates and other items, including 2 for 1 drink specials during the game.

Please come and join your fellow Hawkeyes at Boston's each Saturday. Scheduled games and times are listed on page 1 and email notifications are sent out weekly.
