Ports of Call

KEY WEST, FLORIDA

Visit the Key West Butterfly and Nature Conservatory which houses an impressive collection of flowering plants, cascading waterfalls and butterflies from around the world. Continue on to the Aquarium, Key West's oldest attraction dating back to 1935 and home to hundreds of different species of local sea-life including grouper, moray eels, barracuda, tarpon, sharks, and parrotfish. Don't miss the 19th-century Hemingway Home and Museum, where the author wrote famous works such as For Whom the Bell Tolls.

CARTAGENA, COLOMBIA

Take a scenic drive through the residential area of Manga, and admire the beautiful mansions built at the end of the 19th century. Explore the Castillo San Felipe de Barajas, a fort that was once the most important military structure built in Latin America. Enjoy a boat ride to the Isla del Rosario, 26 coral islands located off the coast of Isla Barú, and continue to the island of San Martín de Pajarales to visit the aquarium and see its spectacular show. Board the beautiful Spanish Galleon, a replica of a 17th-century sailing ship, for a cruise of the inner bay of Cartagena.

PUNTARENAS, COSTA RICA

Exploration of the country's incredible natural wonders lead the day. Be awed by the spectacular rainforest canopy whether you walk through it or ride an aerial tram. Discover breathtaking waterfalls, butterfly gardens and a cloud forest. Watch for curious monkeys and brilliantly colored birds. Walk through a forest to a Pacific Ocean beach for a swim or ride horseback through a rare, virgin tropical dry forest. Or enjoy a scenic drive to San Jose and see this charming city and its sights.

PUERTO CHIAPAS, MEXICO

In the state of Chiapas, the ancient city of Izapa is an impressive Mayan archaeological area with ruins embedded in the heart of a tropical jungle. Its amazing temples date back to Mexico's Classic era from 400 to 700 A.D. At the Central Miguel Hidalgo Park, visit the Regional Museum of Anthropology and History of the Soconusco; admire pieces from the Pre-Classic Maya Period. The adjacent House of Culture exhibits Tapachula antiques, and local arts and crafts. Journey into the Sierra Madre Mountains to discover one of the oldest coffee plantations in the region.

HUATULCO, MEXICO

Huatulco has one of the most important ecosystems in Mexico with more than 36 beaches on nine bays. Surrounded by lush lowland jungle vegetation, the beaches are known for their blue-green waters, mild waves, white sands, and spectacular scuba diving and snorkeling. Find coral reefs with angelfish, sea snails, crabs, puffer fish, marlins and turtles.

ACAPULCO, MEXICO

Savor the breathtaking views of Acapulco Bay from Fort San Diego or the Chapel of Peace. Swim or stroll along miles of magnificent beach. Don't miss the cliff divers of La Quebrada or the old colonial quarter of town.

CABO SAN LUCAS, MEXICO

Revel in a scenic tour of this exotic desert landscape and enjoy fabulous views of the rugged coastline and an incredible cactus garden. Take a horseback ride on the beach, snorkel in a quiet cove or go in search of migrating gray whales.

A variety of optional shore excursions featuring highlights of each port of call will be available for an additional charge.
